Our philosophy

REFINED, EDITORIAL AND EFFORTLESS PHOTOGRAPHY

Dear Couple,

my name is Gessica, and let me introduce myself!

if you hire me and my crew for a wedding, we will ensure that the experience you will live can be fun and at the same time give you images that can last forever.

At the core of our images, and videos there is always an accurate study of light and composition, colors, and, above all, a connection between us and you, the true protagonists of our photos.

We will be with you on your most special day trying to capture the atmosphere, the emotions and the silences, interfering as little as possible with what is happening, but always offering you our experience and our photographic eye to give you a precious memory that you will carry forever.

We will dedicate 80% of the time purely documenting the event, but if you like, in a couple of moments, we could give you some general indications to capture unforgettable images all while making sure you'll be in your element where the true love and real emotions come out.

We really love deep colors, fabulous skin tones, and contrasted black and whites, and every photo we deliver will be cured as a gift to you for your memories.

The best photos are those where you will be completely yourself, where our presence will not be perceived.

Finally, we want to add that every wedding is unique and unrepeatable. No two are alike. We will respect that.

There is no right or wrong, every couple is different, and we will try to represent you while remaining faithful to you and our point of view.

We can't wait to meet you!
