BRIDAL BEAUTY EXPERIENCE
IN TUSCANY

*LUXURY ISN'T ABOUT EXCESS.
IT'S ABOUT FEELING PERFECTLY,
BEAUTIFULLY YOURSELF*

Dear Bride,

congratulations on this beautiful journey you are about to begin. It would be an honor to be part of your wedding day preparations.

As the founder of Beautically Correct I specialize in offering tailored beauty experiences for international brides who are looking for more than just make-up and hair — they're looking for peace of mind, exclusivity, and true artistry that feels personal, refined, and unforgettable.

To ensure the highest quality, I work with only a select number of brides each season. This means you receive full attention, no rush, and a beauty journey crafted entirely around your vision.

I've attached a detailed proposal below (with optional services), but allow me to reassure you that the pricing reflects not only the premium quality of the products I use, but also:

- rigorous hygiene and safety protocols
- absolute punctuality and reliability
- bespoke consultation and assistance throughout the day (on request)
- a curated beauty kit with hand-selected products tailored to your skin, dress and season

Many of my brides tell me that the beauty moment becomes one of the most peaceful, intimate highlights of the day — because they feel held, seen and empowered.

Should you wish to explore this further, I would be delighted to book a virtual consultation with you.

Availability is limited for next month and I'd love to secure your date if it aligns with your vision.

WHAT SHE SAID...

I booked her for my bridal hair and makeup, and I couldn't be more grateful I did.

The result was exactly what I had dreamed of: elegant, luminous, and incredibly long-lasting — it actually took me two washes to remove everything that night!

She listened attentively, enhancing my features in a way that felt both natural and striking.

Throughout the evening, I received countless compliments.

If you're looking for someone genuinely passionate, talented, and utterly reliable, I wholeheartedly recommend Vanessa.
