DANIEL BURALLI

Singer, performer, and writer.
Saying in one word: Showman

His career started as a DJ and speaker on a local radio near Florence.

After more than 10 years attending acting and singing academies, he consolidated his figure as a professional singer and actor.

A specialist in destination weddings, he brings his performance to the most beautiful venues in Italy and Europe. With the Trio Italiano Show, he leads one of the most requested bands at the moment.

He recently published a book and traveled all around Italy with an interactive performance with the audience that gained a lot of success.

He still works as a moderator and anchorman alongside famous Italian singers and actors, making Daniel a very multifaceted artist.

He is often on tour in the most prestigious locations in Monaco, Austria, and the UK.

GIUSEPPE "JOE" FIRENZE

He entered the world of music at the age of 14, driven by the immense passion passed down from his guitarist father. He began his musical studies at the Lizard Academy in Fiesole, learning the basic theoretical and practical notions of fusion guitar. Alongside his studies, he immediately dedicated himself to live performances with various groups and a wide range of musical genres. Over time, he also developed a passion for recording, opening a home studio where he produced demos for local bands. In 2016, he joined the MMI, qualifying as a teacher.

He performs in Italy and abroad, particularly in the Principality of Monaco.

NICOLA CORSINOVİ

An accordionist since he was 7, he has a predilection for studying all Italian and international popular music, such as liscio, jazz, Brazilian forró, manouche, and klezmer. He studied and perfected his technique for 10 years at the CAM in Empoli, before furthering his studies with various accordion technique instructors and studying at the conservatories in Livorno and Florence. In addition to his studies, he boasts experience in many situations, such as folk festivals in Italy and abroad, solo and ensemble concerts, street festivals, folk-rock fests, weddings in Italy and abroad, prestigious events in Tuscany and beyond the region. His motto: have fun and entertain... and surprise!
